II. LITERATURE REVIEW

Social behavior

In Dictionary Indonesian meaningful behavioral responses or reactions to stimuli or environmental individual. While social means with regard to people's lives. Thus social behavior can mean response or reaction to stimuli surrounding communities. Social behavior can be likened to collective behavior, namely the activities of people together in a certain way and follow certain patterns anyway. According to Coleman (2008: 241) that the collective behavior of a transfer of control of a simple and rational to the actions of one actor to another actor. Every human action, either individually or in groups was a reaction to external stimuli received through the senses.

Social behavior is the embodiment of human nature as social beings. Fromm (2001: 312-313) that Darwin was well aware that humans are characterized not only by the typical physical but also with certain psychological traits. Comparable with consciousness higher, human behavior is more supple (flexible), but lacked the reflexes and instincts than other animals, humans are able to think and improve the properties of adaptive behavior in ways that make sense, man is an individual cultured and society, he has developed a unique culture and society, both in type and complexity.

The concept of Rural Community

Sutardjo Kartodikusuma argued that, the village is a legal entity in which resides a community of its own government; also raised by Bintaro, that the village is the embodiment or the unity of geography, social, economic, political and culture are in place (an area), in the relationship and its influence on a reciprocal basis with other regions. Meanwhile, according to Paul H. Landis, the village is less than 2,500 inhabitants. With the following characteristics: First, have a social life to know who knew each other among thousands of lives.
Secondly, there is a linkage that same feeling of affection towards the habit. Third, to attempt the (economic) is the most common agrarian highly influenced by nature such as climate, natural conditions, natural resources,

In Act No. 32 of 2004 mentioned the notion village as a unit of community has boundaries, which is authorized to regulate and manage the interests of the local community, based on the origin and local customs that recognized and respected within the government system Repulik Unitary State of Indonesia. From these definitions, the village is actually a vital part for the existence of the nation of Indonesia. Vital because the village is the smallest unit of this nation that shows the diversity of Indonesia. During this time proved that diversity has become a sponsor for the vertical force and eksisnya nation. Thus strengthening the village becomes non-negotiable and can not be separated from the development of the nation as a whole.

System Values and Norms in Society

The term value is a term that is not easy to be given the exact boundaries. This is because the value is an abstract reality (Ambroisje in Kaswadi, 1993). According to Rokeach and Bank (Taha, 1996) is a type of confidence values that are within the scope of the belief system in which a person acts or avoid any act, or on an appropriate or inappropriate that done. This means that to do with the meaning or giving meaning to an object. According horton and Hant (in J.Dwi Narwoko and Bagong Suyanto, 2004: 35) value is the idea of whether a meaningful or meaningless experience. Value is essentially directed periklaku and consideration of a person, but no! Judging whether a certain behavior is wrong or right.

The concept of tradition Pilgrimage Kubur in Sunan Drajat

Understanding Sunan Drajat

Sunan Drajat seen from a language consisting of three words that tomb, Sunan and Drajat. Tomb or grave is the place to deliver the bodies or called cemetery (2008: 860). So Graveyard here means human jasat place after death. The Sunan means the designation name to the trustees (2008: 1355). While Drajat is the nickname of one of the Wali Sanga, whose real name is Raden Qasim. He dalah son of Sunan Ampel, Sunan Bonang younger brother, brother in law of Sunan Giri, brother in law of Suna Kali Jaga and brother in law of Raden Patah (2016: 86). So Sunan Drajat is a place that used to bury one of the Wali Sanga Sunan Drajat.

Understanding Tradition Pilgrimage Kubur

Tradition is hereditary habits (of the ancestors) are still running in the community. Judgment or assumption that the ways that have been there a best way and completely (Ministry of Education, 2008: 1483). Grave pilgrimage is a privileged meeting point between religions, almost anywhere in the world there are special graves visited by both Muslims and non-Muslims, such as in the village there is the tomb of Sunan Drajat Drajat. According to Ali al-Harawi who wrote a Code of Points Shrine tomb that grave pilgrimage (ziyaratul-qubur) is a form of ritual that has its roots in ancient times masyarakatsejak (Henri, Chambert-Loir and Claude Guillot, 2010: 2).

Pilgrimage Kubur According to Islamic view

Islam considers that the grave pilgrimage is allowed and can safely say that in the acts of worship during ziarah it is the Muslims. The pilgrims are allowed it is the pilgrims who have had a strong Islamic faith and know the law of pilgrimage and objectives. One of the goals of the grave pilgrimage is bertawasul to a person deemed to have miracles in order to get intercession, blessing, and granted all that was asked. If the pilgrims that do not have a strong faith Hence there will be a concern even tend to be exaggerated and deviated from the norms of Islam. In short kesyirikan incurred. Islam also forbids the Muslim people visit the tomb of the infidels and hypocrites.

Pilgrimage Kubur as Element Tradition and Culture

Tradition (Latin: traditio, meaning forwarded) by language is a habit that developed in the public good, which was customary, or assimilated by customary or religious rituals (Poerwadarminta, WJS, 1990: 1293). Or in another sense, something that has been done a long time and become part of the lives of a group of people, usually from a country, culture, time, or the same religion.

According to EB Taylor an anthropologist from the UK suggests that culture is a complex whole which includes knowledge, belief, art, law, morals, customs and other skills acquired by man as a member of the community residents that culture (Boediono Kusumohamidjojo, 2009: 210).

Pilgrimage Kubur in Sunan Drajat

Sunan Drajat is one of the Wali Sanga, while that which is meant by the Wali Sanga is an agency of propaganda to spread the teachings of Islam, because Wali Sanga merupakan a group of people (the mayor) who have the same goals using the system within the organization. Wali Sanga so it can be regarded as a single entity organization with the mission of Islamization in Java (Ridin Sofwan et al, 2004: 253).
