

The Importance Of Cultural And Geopolitical Insights On Indo-Nepal Relations

Vijayakumar. P.K.
Research Scholar (Political Science) Bir Tikendrajit University Manipur

---

Abstract

This piece of work examines historical and geopolitical insights of India Nepal relations in the context of the power changes in the highly globalised world. This analysis explores the historical ties cultural connections with the existing power dynamics in South Asia and its impact on bilateral agreements and territorial disputes. And also this article explores the distinctions between two nations and the kind of identity crises among the people living on borders and the complexity of economic and cultural relations. And also explains the contemporary relations with 1950 Treaty of Peace and Friendship, the Gandak Agreement of 1959, and the transit treaty of 1971 and the growing anti Indian sentiments in Nepal. And it also consider together the way forward to the quite border diplomacy with equality and peoples to people contact by avoiding of coercion.

---

Date of Submission: 01-01-2026

Date of Acceptance: 11-01-2026

---